To complete this score, ask a child or two (one for each instrument) to draw random lines and figures of random sizes within the given spaces, inside the boxes. The child must use nothing but the colors red, yellow, blue and green. Red stands for an intense, loud sound, to be performed with the bow; yellow for a legato, mellow sound, to be performed with the bow; blue stands for a sound to be performed as pizzicato; green stands for a sound to be performed against the wooden body of the instrument or with the wooden side of the bow. Beware of the location of each gesture in relation to the graphic of the instrument at the beginning of every system. Use harmonics to reach notes beyond the neck. Do play the “open” strings after the bridge. Do bow the tailpiece, for example. Gestures last as much as the colored figure. Superimposed colors call for simultaneous gestures; when impossible, leave out as many as necessary (the less prominent drawings, perhaps). No drawing stands for silence. Interpret the nuances of the drawing creatively, following your intuition beyond this instructions. The performance of each system should last around 20 seconds.

Detailed description: This page of a musical score, titled 'IV', features three systems of music for Violin, Cello, and Piano. The first system shows a piano accompaniment with a tempo of approximately 50 (♩ ≈ 50) and a simple bass line. The Violin and Cello parts are initially silent. A callout box with an arrow points to the piano part, containing the instruction 'With plectrum, direct on strings' and a musical example of a plectrum stroke. Above this box, the instruction 'Repeat gesture, sporadically, al fine' is written. The second system begins with a tempo change to 'Allegro' (♩ = 80). The Violin and Cello parts enter with a complex, rhythmic pattern marked 'f agitato sempre'. The piano part continues its previous pattern, with the instruction 'Continue gesture at previous tempo, al fine'. The third system shows the Violin (Vln.) and Cello (Vc.) parts continuing their 'agitato' patterns, with measure numbers 17 and 22 indicated at the start of their respective staves.

26⁸

Vln.

Vc.

This system contains measures 26 through 29. The Violin part (Vln.) is written in a treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It features a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, including a fermata over the final note of measure 29. The Viola part (Vc.) is written in a bass clef and provides a harmonic accompaniment with similar rhythmic patterns.

30⁸

Vln.

Vc.

This system contains measures 30 through 34. The Violin part continues the melodic development with more complex rhythmic figures. The Viola part maintains the harmonic support, with some notes marked with accents.

35

Vln.

Vc.

This system contains measures 35 through 38. The Violin part shows a shift in texture with more frequent sixteenth-note passages. The Viola part continues with a steady accompaniment.

39

Vln.

Vc.

This system contains measures 39 through 42. The Violin part concludes with a melodic phrase that ends in a fermata. The Viola part also concludes with a similar fermata over the final note.
